2026 World Dairy Expo

Judge Selection Procedure

1. Judge nomination may be submitted with online entries or by paper form available in the premim book or Dairy Cattle Exhibitor Information webpage. Nominations are due October 3, 2025, close of World Dairy Expo.
2. A Judge Selection Committee, comprised of the specific breeds of World Dairy Expo exhibitors, selected by the Overall Dairy Cattle Show Superintendent and Chair and Vice-Chair of the Dairy Cattle Exhibitor Committee, will present a list of at least six (6) names. The Overall Dairy Cattle Show Superintendent will serve as the chair of the Judge Selection Committee.
  - a. The Judge Selection Committee will consist of six people plus the Dairy Cattle Exhibitor Committee At-Large breed representative(s).
    - i.) Guernsey nominations will be reviewed by the Association Show Committee. The Show Committee will determine the ballot from the list of nominees submitted by World Dairy Expo Guernsey exhibitors.
    - ii.) Selection Committee Co-Chairs have authority to invite up to three (3) people to serve as backup to any breed show judge selection committee when vacant seats become available after nomination.
  - b. Term length for the Judge Selection Committee is three years; two new members will join the committee each year.
  - c. Once individuals have served their term length, they cannot be reappointed until they have been off the committee for at least two years.
  - d. Judge Selection Committee members, including spouse or immediate family, cannot be on the ballot while serving on the committee.
  - e. Judge Selection Committee members may not add additional names to the list of nominees collected with World Dairy Expo entries.
3. The Judge Selection Committee is encouraged to rank at least six names in priority as they would like them to appear on the judge's ballot.
  - a. A maximum of three names will appear on the ballot, with the highest ranked eligible individuals given preference. Individuals found guilty of an ethics violation at the most recent World Dairy Expo or those found guilty of a past ethics violation where a penalty term is still in force are ineligible and will not be in consideration for the ballot.
  - b. The Judge Selection Committee shall not consider any individual that is not in good standing with the breed association or a North American dairy cattle show.
4. **New for 2025: The ballot will be e-mailed on or before November 15th and will be due the first week of December. The ballot will be distributed to the exhibitor/owner contact email and allow one (1) breed judge vote for each animal placed in the current year's completed breed show. Once your vote has been submitted you will no longer be able to go back in to change or resubmit your vote.
5. The individual receiving the most votes will be selected as the official judge.
6. Upon acceptance of the judging assignment, the official judge will be asked to submit three names for his/her associate judge to the Judge Selection Committee for approval. Upon review of these three names, the Judge Selection Committee will accept or deny the names submitted.
  - a. At the discretion of the official judge, the associate judge may be asked to place the second half of the class. The official judge shall review all placings before completion of the class.
  - b. Should the official judge or associate judge not be able to fulfill their respective role, World Dairy Expo maintains a contract for a confidential stand-by-judge. The stand-by-judge will fulfill either role if the contracted judge is unable.
  - c. The associate judge may not be an immediate family member (defined as: spouse, significant other, father, mother, brother, sister, child, stepchild, father-in-law, mother-in-law, brother-in-law, sister-in-law or grandparent. "Significant Other" is defined as: an individual with whom the judge has a romantic or domestic relationship, including a domestic partner, fiancée, boyfriend or girlfriend. Evidence that an individual is in a Significant Other relationship may include but is not limited to joint responsibility for each other's common welfare, shared financial obligations or there is a shared primary residence.
